This notice requires your immediate action. Please read carefully.

- The Nebraska Department of Revenue (Department) may have received your sales and use tax payment for the tax period indicated above, but not the corresponding Nebraska and Local Sales and Use Tax Return, Form 10. If you believe this is in error, please call 800-742-7474 (NE and IA), or 402-471-5729 to confirm.
- Returns must be filed even if there is no tax due.
- Penalty and interest are not assessed if there is no tax due on the return.
- Late filed returns with tax due are subject to a penalty of $25 or 10% of the tax due, whichever is greater.
- Interest on the tax due is payable at the statutory rate and is due from the original due date until the tax is paid.
- Taxpayers mandated to e-file must use the NebFile for Business online filing system to file the return.
- Please review the information below to determine the category that applies to your situation and follow those specific instructions.

Tax Due

You are required to immediately file a return to report and pay the appropriate tax, penalty, and interest for the tax period indicated above. For the quickest filing, go to revenue.nebraska.gov and use NebFile for Business, found under Online Services, to file this return electronically. Returns for past tax periods may also be filed through Nebfile for Business. For a paper return, you may print the necessary return from our website, or contact the Department.

No Tax Due

If you had no tax to report for the tax period indicated above, you must still complete and e-file or mail your return. Rather than actually filing the Nebraska and Local Sales and Use Tax Return, Form 10, you may instead read, sign, and return the following statement:

Under penalties of law, I declare that I had zero tax to report, and this signed notice constitutes my sales and use tax return for the tax period indicated above.
